

As working people we've wasted our votes
on candidates who support the Corporate Free Trade Agenda.

As taxpayers, we've wasted our votes on candidates who would transfer our wealth and income to those who need it least.

As people in need we've wasted our votes on candidates who have dismantled the safety net.

As breathers of air, drinkers of water and eaters of food we've wasted our votes on candidates less accountable to us than to polluters.

As free souls on this planet, we've wasted our votes on candidates who suspend the Constitution and track our students into prison.

As voters and citizens we've wasted our votes on candidates who are beholden to corporate contributors and their narrow agendas.

Now, before its too late,

We must act to reclaim democracy.

We must vote as if our children's future mattered.

We must reaffirm our independence and our sanity.
